A CHINESE BURIAL QUESTION.

While the Queen's Speech is able to "refer particularly" to the settlement of the long-continued question relating to the subject of burials, the Chinese Government has recently issued a proclamation which is of great importance to the Chinese people. The proclamation is of great importance to the Chinese people. The proclamation is of great importance to the Chinese people.

JAPANESE AND CHINA.

Comparing the Japanese and Chinese students now enrolled in American schools and colleges, several marked contrasts and differences are evident. The most prominent difference in respect to external characteristics is the greater refinement of the Chinese. The Chinese are more refined in their dress and manners than the Japanese. The Chinese are more refined in their dress and manners than the Japanese.
